Randal Miller

Independent Retail Electric Provider Segment

Randal Miller has over 20 years of energy experience. Mr. Miller has an extensive background in trading electricity and natural gas, having worked with Koch Energy, TransAlta Energy Trading, and a proprietary energy trading group. In addition, Mr. Miller was involved with formulating policies and regulations during the deregulation of the Alberta electricity markets. Most recently, Mr. Miller was a co-founder of Town Square Energy, which serviced retail electricity customers in eight states and was purchased by Genie Retail Energy in late 2016. Since this acquisition, Mr. Miller has served as CEO of Town Square Energy while leading business development efforts to establish Southern Federal Power, which services a growing book in the Texas retail electricity sector.
