Chairman Laura Doll determined a quorum was present and called the Nominating Committee meeting to order at approximately 5:43 p.m. Chairman Doll announced that Jorge Bermudez had provided his proxy to Miguel Espinosa for the meeting.

Chairman Doll reported that the initial Unaffiliated Director term of A.D. Patton would be expiring in June 2011 and that the final Unaffiliated Director term of Miguel Espinosa would be expiring in November 2011. She further reported that the Legislature was currently considering the Sunset Commission bill that contemplated the addition of other Unaffiliated Director seats to the Board. Chairman Doll advised that the Committee would be developing a pipeline of Unaffiliated Director candidates for these reasons. She also reported that the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) recently amended its rules regarding ERCOT oversight, effective as of the meeting date, which required Commission approval of Unaffiliated Directors prior to their seating on the Board among other things. She generally reminded the Committee of the ERCOT Bylaws requirements regarding the composition of the Committee, the engagement of an executive search firm to identify Unaffiliated Director candidates, and the independence requirements for Unaffiliated Directors.

Chairman Doll adjourned the meeting to Executive Session at approximately 5:45 p.m. until approximately 6:15 p.m., when she reconvened the meeting to Open Session.
