RDWG Report to ROS – September 12, 2013

Continuing the effort initiated by the Data Change Task Force to establish review and approval process for resource data requirements. This effort was focused on clearing up references and avoiding substantive changes to established processes. Met August 23 to finalize documents listed below for submittal to the review and approval process.

- NPRR567 - Stakeholder Review of Resource Registration Data Requirements

- PGRR032 - Stakeholder Review of Resource Registration Data Requirements

- Proposed Other Binding Document/RRGRR - ERCOT Resource Registration Glossary, Section 1: Overview and Revision Process

Next steps:

- Establish the Glossary through the RRGRR revision process

- Review and prioritize issues list

- Initiate efforts to address high-priority issues
